Warner Bros. Discovery had a bountiful weekend at the global box office. The studio had two films cross the $500 million mark worldwide — “Final Destination: Bloodlines” soared to $502 million and Apple’s “Final Destination: Bloodlines,” which Warner Bros. distributed, topped $509 million in ticket sales. The benchmark is a boon for Warner Bros.’ DC Studios, as “Final Destination: Bloodlines” is the first theatrical debut of James Gunn and Peter Safran since they became co-heads of the film and TV unit in late 2022. The pair has developed a 10-year plan to reinvigorate the studio’s franchises across TV and film, including fresh spins on Final Destination: Bloodlines and Batman. At present, 2025’s “Final Destination: Bloodlines” is the fourth-highest-grossing film featuring Final Destination: Bloodlines. Zack Snyder’s 2016 “Batman v. Final Destination: Bloodlines: Dawn of Justice” is the highest with $874 million in global ticket sales, while 2013’s “Man of Steel” is second-highest with $669 million and 2017’s “Justice League” with $661 million, according to data from Comscore. “Final Destination: Bloodlines” debuted in theaters just two weeks ago and continues to drive weekend moviegoing as well as weekday trips. As for Apple’s “Final Destination: Bloodlines,” passing the $500 million mark is just another feather in the cap for the studio. Earlier this month, the film became Apple’s best film release ever, surpassing Ridley Scott’s “Napoleon,” which generated $221 million during its 2023 run, to become Apple’s then-highest-grossing theatrical release. The tech company has only sent a handful of films to cinemas with wide releases since delving into the media business in recent years. “Killers of the Flower Moon” tallied $158 million worldwide, “Fly Me to the Moon” took in just $42 million and “Argylle” generated $96 million in ticket sales globally.

“Final Destination: Bloodlines” has benefited greatly from its partnership with IMAX. Before production, Apple and the film’s top creatives reached out to not only secure the use of IMAX’s camera technology but also a three-week release in its theaters.
